AND ITS SUCCESSORS OR ASSIGNS,

Garnishee.

PROPOSED FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

This matter is before me on the Government's Application for Writ of Garnishment. (Doc. 193.) Garnishee filed a letter in answer to the Application. (Doc. 195.) Defendant filed a Request for Hearing. (Doc. 196) On August 21, 2008, a Notice of Hearing was entered, setting a hearing on September 5, 2008, at 10:00 a.m. (Doc. 197.) Neither Garnishee nor Defendant appeared for the hearing.¹

The record reflects that the Court entered a Declaration of Bond Forfeiture and Judgment on May 22, 2001 against Defendant and her surety in the amount of $50,000, and that Defendant is currently employed by and earns bi-weekly wages from Garnishee. (Doc. 174, 195.) At the hearing, the Government submitted a proposed Order of Garnishment, which would order Garnishee to pay 25% of Defendant's net wages, after deduction of statutory withholdings, each pay period.²

The record reflects that the Government has complied with the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 3202, 3205. Furthermore, no party has offered any reason as to why garnishment is inappropriate. I therefore recommend that the Order of Garnishment be signed and entered by the Court.

THE PARTIES ARE NOTIFIED THAT WITHIN 10 DAYS OF SERVICE of a copy of these Proposed Findings and Recommended Disposition they may file written objections with the Clerk of the District Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636 (b)(1). A party must file any objections with the Clerk of the District Court within the ten-day period if that party wants to have appellate review of the Proposed Findings and Recommended Disposition. If no objections are filed, no appellate review will be allowed.
